3. A great pleasure in life is doing what people say you cannot do. Walter Gagehot
4. A great secret of success is to go through life as a man who never gets used up. Albert Schweitzer
5. A racehorse that consistently runs just a second faster than another horse is worth millions of dollars more. Be willing to give that extra effort that separates the winner from the one in second place. H. Jackson Brown Jr
6. A successful person is a dreamer whom someone believed in. Author Unknown
7. A successful person is one who takes the cold water dumped on his or her plans, heats it with enthusiasm, and manufactures the steam that helps him or her push ahead. Author Unknown
8. Achievement is not always success, while reputed failure often is. It is honest endeavour, persistent effort to do the best possible under any and all circumstances. Orison Swett Marden
9. Achievement seems to be connected with action. Successful men and women keep moving. They make mistakes, but they don't quit. Conrad Hilton
10. Action is the foundational key to all success. Pablo Picasso
11. Aim for success, not perfection. Never give up your right to be wrong, because then you will lose the ability to learn new things and move forward with your life. Dr. David M. Burns
12. All my growth and development led me to believe that if you really do the right thing, and if you play by the rules, and if you've got good enough, solid judgment and common sense, that you're going to be able to do whatever you want to do with your life. Barbara Jordan
13. All of us are born for a reason, but all of us don't discover why. Success in life has nothing to do with what you gain in life or accomplish for yourself. It's what you do for others. Danny Thomas
14. All successful people are people of purpose. They hold fast to an idea, a project, a plan, and will not let it go; they cherish it, brood upon it, tend and develop it; and when assailed by difficulties, they refuse to be beguiled into surrender; indeed, the intensity of the purpose increases with the growing magnitude of the obstacles encountered. James Allen
15. All successful people, men and women, are big dreamers. They imagine what their future could be, ideal in every respect, and then they work every day toward their distant vision, that goal or purpose. Brian Tracy
16. Always bear in mind that your own resolution to succeed is more important than any other one thing. Abraham Lincoln

17. Always demanding the best of oneself, living with honor, devoting one's talents and gifts to the benefits of others - these are the measures of success that endure when material things have passed away. Gerald Ford

74. He who labours diligently need never despair; for all things are accomplished by diligence and labor. Menander
75. Health, happiness and success depend upon the fighting spirit of each person. The big thing is not what happens to us in life - but what we do about what happens to us. George Allen
76. Here is the basic rule for winning success. Let's mark it in the mind and remember it. The rule is: Success depends on the support of other people. The only hurdle between you and what you want to be in is the support of other people. David J. Schwartz
77. Here is the prime condition of success: Concentrate your energy, thought and capital exclusively upon the business in which you are engaged. Having begun on one line, resolve to fight it out on the line, to lead in it, adopt every improvement, have the best machinery, and know the most about it. Andrew Carnegie
78. History has demonstrated that the most notable winners usually encountered heart-breaking obstacles before they triumphed. They won because they refused to become discouraged by their defeats. B.C. Forbes
79. History records the successes of men with objectives and a sense of direction. Oblivion is the position of small men overwhelmed by obstacles. William Danforth
80. How far you go in life depends on you being tender with the young, compassionate with the aged, sympathetic with the striving and tolerant of the weak and the strong. Because someday in life you will have been all of these. George Washington Carver

90. I can give you a six-word formula for success: Think things through – then follow through. Captain Edward
91. I can promise you that the challenges you'll meet on the road to success are far less difficult to deal with than the struggles and the disappointments that come from being average. V. Rickenbacker
92. I can't imagine a person becoming a success who doesn't give this game of life everything he's got. Walter Cronkite
93. I challenge you to make your life a masterpiece. I challenge you to join the ranks of those people who live what they teach, who walk their talk. Anthony Robbins
94. I couldn't wait for success, so I went ahead without it. Jonathon Winters
95. I do not like to repeat successes; I like to go on to other things. Walt Disney
96. I do not think there is any other quality so essential to success of any kind as the quality of perseverance. It overcomes almost everything, even nature. John D. Rockefeller
97. I don't know the key to success, but the key to failure is trying to please everybody. Bill Cosby
98. I don't measure my "success" every day. I measure how much we have left to do. In that sense, business success is just a form of persistence. Daniel Snyder
99. I don't measure a man's success by how high he climbs but how high he bounces when he hits bottom. General George Patton
100. I feel that the most important requirement in success is learning to overcome failure. You must learn to tolerate it, but never accept it. Reggie Jackson
101. I found that the men and women who got to the top were those who did the jobs they had in hand, with everything they had of energy and enthusiasm and hard work. Harry Truman

102. I go where the puck is going to be, not where the puck is. Wayne Gretzky
103. I have always believed that anybody with a little guts and the desire to apply himself can make it, can make anything he wants to make of himself. Willie Shoemaker
104. I have learned this at least by my experiment: that if one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams and endeavours to live the life he has imagined, he will meet with success unexpected in common hours. Henry David Thoreau
105. I have not failed. I've just found 10,000 ways that won't work. Thomas A. Edison
106. I hope I have convinced you -- the only thing that separates successful people from the ones who aren't is the willingness to work very, very hard. Helen Gurley Brown
107. I know the price of success: dedication, hard work, and an unremitting devotion to the things you want to see happen. Frank Lloyd Wright
108. I long to accomplish a great and noble task, but it is my chief duty to accomplish humble tasks as though they were great and noble. The world is moved along, not only by the mighty shoves of its heroes, but also by the aggregate of the tiny pushes of each honest worker. Helen Keller
109. I must admit that I personally measure success in terms of the contributions an individual makes to her or his fellow human beings. Margaret Mead
110. I never knew an early-rising, hard-working, prudent man, careful of his earnings, and strictly honest who complained of bad luck. Henry Ward Beecher
111. I owe my success to having listened respectfully to the very best advice, and then going away and doing the exact opposite. G.K. Chesterton
112. I was made to work. If you are equally industrious, you will be equally successful. Johann Sebastian Bach
113. I would rather fail in a cause that will ultimately succeed than succeed in a cause that will ultimately fail. Woodrow T. Wilson
114. If a great thing can be done, it can be done easily, but this ease is like the ease of a tree blossoming after long years of gathering strength. John Ruskin
115. If A is a success in life, then A equals x plus y plus z. Work is x; y is play; and z is keeping your mouth shut. Albert Einstein
116. If a man has talent and cannot use it, he has failed. If he has talent and uses only half of it, he has half failed. If he has a talent and learns somehow to use the whole of it, he has gloriously succeeded, and won a satisfaction and a triumph few men ever know. Thomas Wolfe

117. If a man is called to be a street sweeper, he should sweep streets even as Michelangelo painted, or Beethoven composed music or Shakespeare wrote poetry. He should sweep streets so well that all the hosts of heaven and earth will pause to say, here lived a great street sweeper who did his job well. Martin Luther King, Jr
118. If at first you don't succeed, do it like your mother told. Author Unknown
119. If at first you don't succeed; you are running about average. M. H. Alderson
120. If because of a failure a person finally discovers where and how his talent can best be used for God, the failure must surely be regarded a success. Author Unknown
121. If I have been of service, if I have glimpsed more of the nature and essence of ultimate good, if I am inspired to reach wider horizons of thought and action, if I am at peace with myself, it has been a successful day. Alex Noble
122. If I'm not free to fail, I'm not free to take risks, and everything in life that's worth doing involves a willingness to take a risk and involves the risk of failure . . . I have to try, but I do not have to succeed. Madeleine L'Engle
123. If the road to success is always under construction, become a construction worker. Author Unknown
124. If you can't do great things, do small things in a great way. Napoleon Hill
125. If you conduct yourself as though you expect to be successful and happy, you will seldom be disappointed. Brian Tracy
126. If you envy successful people, you create a negative force field of attraction that repels you from ever doing the things that you need to do to be successful. If you admire successful people, you create a positive force field of attraction that draws you toward becoming more and more like the kinds of people that you want to be like. Brian Tracy
127. If you find it in your heart to care for somebody else, you will have succeeded. Maya Angelou
128. If you have great talents, industry will improve them; if you have but moderate abilities, industry will supply their deficiency. Joshua Reynolds
129. If you want to succeed you should strike out on new paths, rather than travel the worn paths of accepted success. John D. Rockefeller
130. If you work just for money, you'll never make it. But if you love what you are doing, and always put the customer first, success will be yours. Ray Kroc
131. If your success is not on your own terms, if it looks good to the world but does not feel good in your heart, it is not success at all. Anna Quindlen

132. In business, the competition will bite you if you keep running; if you stand still, they will swallow you. William Knudsen Jr.
133. In order to succeed you must fail, so that you know what not to do the next time. Anthony D'Angelo
134. In order to succeed, we must first believe that we can. Michael Korda
135. Instead of thinking about where you are, think about where you want to be. It takes twenty years of hard work to become an overnight success. Diana Rankin
136. It does not take great men to do great things: it only takes consecrated men. Phillips Brooks
137. It is a mistake to suppose that men succeed through success; they much oftener succeed through failures. Precept, study, advice, and example could never have taught them so well as failure has done. Samuel Smiles
138. It is hard to fail, but it is worse never to have tried to succeed. Theodore Roosevelt
139. It is literally true that you can succeed best and quickest by helping others to succeed. Napoleon Hill
140. It is more important to be of service than successful. Robert Kennedy Jr
141. It is necessary to try to surpass oneself always; this occupation ought to last as long as life. Christina. Queen of Sweden
142. It is not the critic who counts, not the man who points out how the strong man stumbled, or where the doer of deeds could have done better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood, who strives valiantly, who errs and comes short again and again, who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions, and spends himself in a worthy cause, who at best knows achievement and who at the worst if he fails at least fails while daring greatly so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat. Theodore Roosevelt
143. It is not the going out of port, but the coming in, that determines the success of a voyage. Henry Ward Beecher
144. It is on our failures that we base a new and different and better success. Havelock Ellis
145. It is only as we develop others that we permanently succeed. Harvey S. Firestone
146. It is only at the tree loaded with fruit that the people throw stones. French Proverb
147. It is possible to fail in many ways ... while to succeed is possible only in one way. Aristotle
148. It is said that one machine can do the work of 50 ordinary men. No machine, however, can do the work of one extraordinary man. Tehyi Hsieh

149. It takes time to succeed because success is merely the natural reward of taking time to do anything well. Joseph Ross
150. It takes twenty years to become an overnight success. Eddie Cantor
151. It's a strange thing, you have said it thousands of times I am sure...you will never know what you can do until you try. However the sad truth is, that most people never try anything until they know they can do it. Bob Proctor
152. It's simply a matter of doing what you do best and not worrying about what the other fellow is going to do. John R. Amos
153. I've found every successful person I've ever spoken to had a turning point. The turning point was when they made a clear, specific, unequivocal decision that they were not going to live like this anymore; they were going to achieve success. Some people make that decision at 15 and some people make it at 50, and most people never make it at all. Brian Tracy
154. I've never met a person, I don't care what his condition, in whom I could not see possibilities. I don't care how much a man may consider himself a failure, I believe in him, for he can change the thing that is wrong in his life anytime he is prepared and ready to do it. Whenever he develops the desire, he can take away from his life the thing that is defeating it. Rev. Dr. Preston Bradley
155. Keep in mind that neither success nor failure is ever final. Roger W. Babson
156. Let but the will of a human being be turned to one particular object and it is ten to one, that sooner or later, he achieves it. Lavengro
157. Life is a succession of moments. To live each one is to succeed. Corita Kent
158. Live daringly, boldly, fearlessly. Taste the relish to be found in competition -- in having put forth the best within you. Henry J. Kaiser
159. Look at a day when you are supremely satisfied at the end. It's not a day when you lounge around doing nothing; it's when you've had everything to do, and you've done it. Margaret Thatcher
160. Losers visualize the penalties of failure. Winners visualize the rewards of success. Rob Gilbert
161. Love the moment. Flowers grow out of dark moments. Therefore, each moment is vital. It affects the whole. Corita Kent
162. Make service your first priority, not success and success will follow. Author Unknown
163. Make the most of today. Translate your good intentions into actual deeds. Grenville Kleiser
164. Making a success of the job at hand is the best step toward the kind you want. Bernard M. Baruch
165. Man was designed for accomplishment, engineered for success, and endowed with the seeds of greatness. Zig Ziglar

166. Many a one has succeeded only because he has failed after repeated efforts. If he had never met defeat, he would never have known any great victory. Orison Swett Marden
167. Many of life's failures are people who did not realize how close they were to success when they gave up. Thomas Edison
168. Many of us spend our lives searching for success when it is usually so close that we can reach out and touch it. Russell H. Conwell
169. Material possessions, winning scores, and great reputations are meaningless in the eyes of the Lord, because He knows what we really are and that is all that matters. John Wooden
170. May you attain the level of success you EARN! Author Unknown
171. Men and women who have accomplished much have sacrificed much. Men are born to succeed, not fail. Henry David Thoreau
172. Men are born to succeed, not to fail. Henry David Thoreau
173. Men give me credit for some genius. All the genius I have lies in this: When I have a subject in hand, I study it profoundly. Day and night it is before me. I explore it in all its bearings. My mind becomes pervaded with it. Then the effort which I have made is what people are pleased to call the fruit of genius. It is the fruit of labour and thought. Alexander Hamilton
174. Men judge us by the success of our efforts, God looks at the efforts themselves. Charlotte Bronte
175. Men succeed when they realize that their failures are the preparation for their victories. Ralph Waldo Emerson
176. Most great men and women are not perfectly rounded in their personalities, but are instead people whose one driving enthusiasm is so great it makes their faults seem insignificant. Charles A. Cerami
177. Most great people have attained their greatest success just one step beyond their greatest failure. Napoleon Hill
178. Most of the successful people I've known are the ones who do more listening than talking. Bernard Baruch
179. Most of us serve our ideals by fits and starts. The person who makes a success of living is one who sees his goal steadily and aims for it unswervingly. That's dedication. Cecil B. De Mille
180. Most people are advanced because they're pushed up from the people underneath them rather than pulled up by the top. Donald David
181. My definition of success is total self-acceptance. We can obtain all of the material possessions we desire quite easily, however, attempting to change our deepest thoughts and learning to love ourselves is a monumental challenge. We may achieve success in our business lives but it never quite means as much if we do not feel good inside. Once we feel good about ourselves inside we can genuinely lend ourselves to others. Franki

182. My list of ingredients for success is divided into four basic groups: Inward, Outward, Upward and Onward. David Thomas
183. My mother drew a distinction between achievement and success. She said that 'achievement is the knowledge that you have studied and worked hard and done the best that is in you. Success is being praised by others, and that's nice too, but not as important or as satisfying. Always aim for achievement and forget about success. Helen Hayes
184. My mother said to me, "If you become a soldier, you'll be a general; if you become a monk, you'll end up as the Pope." Instead, I became a painter and wound up as Picasso. Pablo Picasso
185. My success just evolved from working hard at the business at hand each day. Johnny Carson
186. Never lose sight of the fact that the most important yardstick of your success will be how you treat other people -- your family, friends, and co-workers, and even strangers you meet along the way. Barbara Bush

415. The successful man is prosperous, because he has developed ninety-five percent of his ability. The failure is poor, because only five percent of his natural talents have been utilized. Charles E. Popplestone
416. The successful man is the one who finds out what is the matter with his business before his competitors do. Roy L. Smith
417. The successful man will profit from his mistakes and try again in a different way. Dale Carnegie
418. The successful men of today are men of one overmastering idea, one unwavering aim, men of single and intense purpose. Orison Swett Marden
419. The successful person has the habit of doing the things failures don't like to do. They don't like doing them either necessarily. But their disliking is subordinated to the strength of their purpose. E.M. Gray
420. The successful warrior is the average man, with laser-like focus. Bruce Lee
421. The talent of success is nothing more than doing what you can do well and doing well whatever you do Henry Wadsworth Longfellow
422. The thing always happens that you really believe in; and the belief in a thing makes it happen. Frank Lloyd Wright
423. The toughest thing about success is that you've got to keep on being a success. Talent is only a starting point in business. You've got to keep working that talent. Irving Berlin
424. The trouble comes when we try to fashion our success to the outside world's specifications even though these are not the specifications drawn up in our own hearts. For whom are we succeeding, for ourselves or for somebody else? Howard Whitman
425. The true measure of success is not what position you've reached in life, but what obstacles you have overcome to reach the desired goal. Author Unknown
426. The twin killers of success are impatience and greed Jim Rohn
427. The two hardest things to handle in life are failure and success. Author Unknown
428. The ultimate victory in competition is derived from the inner satisfaction of knowing that you have done your best and that you have gotten the most out of what you had to give. Howard Cosell
429. The victory of success is half won when one gains the habit of setting goals and achieving them. Even the most tedious chore will become endurable as you parade through each day convinced that every task, no matter how menial or boring, brings you closer to fulfilling your dreams. Og Mandino
430. The worst bankrupt in the world is the man who has lost his enthusiasm. Let a man lose everything else in the world but his enthusiasm and he will come through again to success. H.W. Arnold

431. There is no way to success in art but to take off your coat, grind paint, and work like a digger on the railroad, all day and every day. Ralph Waldo Emerson
432. There is one practice that many of those who accomplish great things will admit they have indulged in, especially during their leaner years. They were able to picture themselves, vividly, having already attained their goals, and they retained that image in their minds constantly, assuring themselves again and again that they knew they would succeed. Dr. Marcus Bach. Dr. Marcus Bach
433. There is only one real failure in life that is possible and that is, not to be true to the best one knows. Fredric Farrer
434. There is only one success – to be able to spend your life in your own way. Christopher Morley
435. There's no limit to what a man can achieve, if he doesn't care who gets the credit. Laing Burns, Jr
436. They never fail who die in a great cause. George Gordon Byron
437. Those who dare to fail miserably can achieve greatly. Robert F. Kennedy
438. Those who would bring great things to pass must rise early. Matthew Henry
439. Thoughts and ideas are the source of all wealth, success, material gain, all great discoveries, inventions and achievements. Mark Victor Hansen
440. Time is our most valuable asset, yet we tend to waste it, kill it, and spend it rather than invest it. Jim Rohn
441. To be a winner, all you need to give, is all you have. Author Unknown
442. To be successful, you must decide exactly what you want to accomplish, then resolve to pay the price to get it. Bunker Hunt
443. To be what we are, and to become what we are capable of becoming, is the only end of life. Robert Louis Stevenson
444. To become an able and successful man in any profession, three things are necessary, nature, study and practice. Henry Ward Beecher
445. To follow without halt, one aim; there is the secret of success. And success? What is it? I do not find it in the applause of the theater; it lies rather in the satisfaction of accomplishment. Anna Pavlova
446. To freely bloom – that is my definition of success. Gerry Spence
447. To give your best is to receive the best. Raymond Holliwel
448. To guarantee success, act as if it were impossible to fail. Dorothea Brande
449. To have known the best, and to have known it for the best, is success in life. John W. Mackay

450. To know a man, observe how he wins his object, rather than how he loses it; for when we fail, our pride supports; when we succeed, it betrays us. Charles Caleb Colton
451. To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded. Ralph Waldo Emerson
452. Today's preparation determines tomorrow's achievement. Author Unknown
453. Try not to become a man of success, but rather to become a man of value. He is considered successful in our day who gets more out of life than he puts in. But a man of value will give more than he receives. Albert Einstein
454. Unless you're willing to have a go, fail miserably, and have another go, success won't happen. Phillip Adams
455. Very often we are our own worst enemy as we foolishly build stumbling blocks on the path that leads to success and happiness. Louis Binstock
456. Victory belongs to the most persevering. Napoleon Bonaparte
457. Victory has a hundred fathers, but no one wants to recognise defeat as his own. Count Galeazzo Ciano
458. We can help others in the world more by making the most of yourself than in any other way. Earl Nightingale
459. We can no more afford to spend major time on minor things than we can to spend minor time on major things. Jim Rohn
460. We claim that any man who is honest, fair, tolerant, kind, charitable, and well-behaved is a success. No matter what his station in life. Jay House

463. We fall forward to succeed. Basil S. Walsh
464. We must be the epitome-the embodiment-of success. We must radiate success before it will come to us. We must first become mentally, from an attitude standpoint, the people we wish to become. Earl Nightingale

465. We must walk consciously only part way toward our goal and then leap in the dark to our success. Henry David Thoreau
466. We succeed only as we identify in life, or in war, or in anything else, a single overriding objective, and make all other considerations bend to that one objective. Dwight D. Eisenhower
467. We were born to succeed, not to fail. Henry David Thoreau
468. We will often find compensation if we think more of what life has given us and less about what life has taken away. William Barclay
469. Well done is better than well said. Ben Franklin
470. We've all heard that we have to learn from our mistakes, but I think it's more important to learn from successes. If you learn only from your mistakes, you are inclined to learn only errors. Norman Vincent Peale
471. What I must do is all that concerns me, not what the people think. This rule, equally arduous in actual and intellectual life, may serve for the whole distinction between greatness and meanness. It is the harder, because you will always find those who think they know what is your duty better than you know it. It is easy in the world to live after the world's opinion; it is easy in solitude to live after our own; but the great person is one who in the midst of the crowd keeps with perfect sweetness the independence of solitude. Ralph Waldo Emerson
472. What is the recipe for successful achievement? To my mind there are just four essential ingredients: Choose a career you love, give it the best there is in you, seize your opportunities, and be a member of the team. Benjamin F. Fairless
473. What's money? A man is a success if he gets up in the morning and goes to bed at night and in between does what he wants to do. Bob Dylan
474. Whatever is worth doing at all is worth doing well. Earl of Chesterfield
475. Whatever the price, identify it now. What will you have to go through to get where you want to be? There is a price you can pay to be free of the situation once and for all. It may be a fantastic price or a tiny one --but there is a price. Harry Browne
476. Whatever you vividly imagine, ardently desire, sincerely believe, and enthusiastically act upon ... must inevitably come to pass! Paul J. Meyer
477. When a man feels throbbing within him the power to do what he undertakes as well as it can possibly be done, and all of his faculties say amen to what he is doing, and give their unqualified approval to his efforts, -- this is happiness, this is success. Orison Swett Marden
478. When a man has done his best, has given his all, and in the process supplied the needs of his family and his society, that man has made a habit of succeeding. Mack R. Douglas

479. When I am delivering my very best, then that is when I feel successful. Art Fetting
480. When you are making a success of something, it's not work, It's a way of life. You enjoy yourself because you are making your contribution to the world. Andrew Granatelli
481. When you do the common things in life in an uncommon way, you will command the attention of the world. George Washington Carver
482. When you get right down to the root of the meaning of the word succeed, you find that it simply means to follow through. F. W. Nichol
483. When you have much success, two things happen. The first is that we begin to take success for granted. The second is that we forget how we got here-namely, by exceptionally hard work and in spite of intense competition. Jack Mack Carter
484. Whenever you are asked if you can do a job, tell em, Certainly I can! -- and get busy and find out how to do it. Theodore Roosevelt
485. Work for something because it is good, not just because it stands a chance to succeed. Vaclav Havel
486. Would you like me to give you a formula for success? It's quite simple, really. Double your rate of failure. You are thinking of failure as the enemy of success. But it isn't all that. You can be discouraged by failure - or you can learn from it. So go ahead and make mistakes. Make all you can. Because, remember, that's where you will find success. Thomas J. Watson
487. Yesterday I dared to struggle. Today I dare to win. Bernadette Devlin
488. You are truly successful when you can extend a strong hand to someone reaching, searching or just trying to hang on. Dennis Waitley
489. You are wholly complete and your success in life will be in direct proportion to your ability to accept this truth about you. Dr. Robert Anthony
490. You can get anything in life you want if you just help enough other people get what they want. Zig Ziglar
491. You can have anything you want - if you want it badly enough. You can be anything you want to be, do anything you set out to accomplish if you hold to that desire with singleness of purpose. Abraham Lincoln
492. You cannot climb the ladder of success dressed in the costume of failure. Zig Ziglar
